Merchant Agreement

Merchant agrees to make best effort to maintain goods in good condition and to display goods to enable sales in reasonable amount of time. Merchant will not be held responsible for damage or theft of goods by customers, or damage by faulty display mounting by Artist. Merchant agrees to sell goods at set price for cash/check sales only, and sales tax will be the responsibility of the Artist. In the event that sales tax is charged and paid by the Merchant, this tax will be passed along to the Artist and will be collected with commission at the end of each month.

Artist/Consigner Agreement

Artist agrees to keep consignment shelves/displays well stocked. Artist agrees to provide and keep the name of business, contact info, price tags, business cards, artist bios, and artist statements up to date and presented in a professional manner. Artist agrees that sales gained because of the café display, including sales made due to out of stock items, will be considered sales by the Merchant and commission will be due to the Merchant within the agreed upon accounting period.

Commission rate: 15% to Solomon's Porch Café & Catering

Accounting Period: Every 30 days, (or the final business day of each month). Merchant will provide a complete accounting, with full payment for sales made, less commission.

Return date: Goods must stay on premises or be simultaneously replaced by other inventory during the agreed upon term for display. Goods must either be removed by the end of term date, or a new contract must be agreed upon for further sales.

Consignment Term: ----- to -----.
